

Unveiling the key challenges and threats that firms face when managing third party risk.

During our webinar on Third Party Risk, attendees were invited to complete a brief survey. The findings revealed:

“ Awareness is growing, but firms need to take practical steps to identify third party risks, understand how to mitigate them and monitor controls to assess the ongoing risk from third parties. Ongoing monitoring includes reviewing material relating to complaints, issues and failures in processes to help understand where the gaps lie.
